Grand Parents' Day Celebration

“Nobody can do for little children what Grandparents do. Grandparents sort of sprinkle stardust over the lives of little children.”

Grandparents are the founders of a loving legacy, a delightful blend of laughter, caring deeds, wonderful stories and love. Through their special love and care, grandparents keep a family close to heart. To honour them, Jay Jyoti School celebrated Grandparents Day on Tuesday 10th October 2023.

Grandparents arrived at 10:00 a.m. Mrs. Uma Kashyap welcomed the grandparents. The program started at 10:15a.m. with lighting of the lamp, done by Principal Mr. R.B.S. Thapa and one of the grandparents. The tiny tots of Nursery to KG-II came up with scintillating performance as they danced to the melodious tunes of welcome song (Dada Dadi, Nana and Nani welcome to our School)

The program continued in the assembly area with the activity of colouring and vegetable printing. All grandparents and grandchildren enjoyed it. The grandparents were delighted to participate in this activity. Appropriate music and enthusiastic grandparent-grandchild combinations made the events more wonderful.

After this, the group dance was done by classes I and II (Dada ji ki chhadi hoon mai) prepared by Ms. Ankita Namdev.

Various games and activities like Lemon and Spoon Race, Grandparents' Dance Tattoo Making were organized for the grandparents. They participated in all the games and activities and added a spark to the celebration with their robust participation.

They were invited to express their thoughts and memories of their childhood. Different emotions could be felt and all the attendees were visibly moved after witnessing the grandparents' boundless affection for their grandchildren.

It was a celebration of a selfless and limitless love and it was an opportunity for both grandparents and grandchildren to express their affection for each other. Fun games were conducted by Mrs. Pratigya Singh, Mrs. Anita Saxena, Miss. Ankita Namdev and Miss. Anjali Dwivedi.

The winners from the game were greeted with gifts by the Principal which brought a twinkle to their otherwise dull eyes. Appropriate music and enthusiastic grandparent-grandchild combinations made these events runaway hits with all those present.

Our Principal Mr. R.B.S. Thapa addressed the importance of celebrating the grandparents' day. He emphasized gratitude to all the grandparents and for the important role they play in positive achievements and family life. The school staff also interacted on a one-to-one basis with the guests, during the high tea arranged for them.

The event ended with a Vote of Thanks by our Principal Mr. R.B.S. Thapa. The general mood was one of exultation and everyone was truly happy. Every grandparent left with appreciation and gladness to have participated in the event commemorated for them.

It was a successful event indeed, and the school as always would be pleased to organize many such more events.

Intra Class Toran Making Competition (for classes III – VIII)

Inter House Rangoli Making Competition (for classes IX – XII)

The Diwali themed Toran and Rangoli making competition was organized as part of the Inter House and Intra Class activities held on 09th of November at Jay Jyoti School. This event aimed to foster creativity and encourage teamwork among students across different houses. In Toran Making Competition, students of every section participated with great zeal and enthusiasm.

The beautiful door hangings that are also known as bandanwaars and torans have special significance as the decoration accessories. These torans are the first thing that welcomes our guests as they step at our place.

The Toran Making Competition, witnessed a vibrant display of creativity by the enthusiastic students of classes III to VIII. Eager participants adorn their torans with an array of colourful stones, dazzling mirrors and delicate artificial flowers, each one exuding a unique charm.

Rangoli making has been an essential part of Diwali celebrations in our country. Although Diwali is a festival of lights, the Rangoli colours play a big role in bringing out the festive spirit during these celebrations. Therefore, to promote this traditional art from amongst the students, an Inter House Rangoli making competition was organized. All the houses participated with great zeal and enthusiasm. The first position was bagged by Mother Teresa Houses.

This Rangoli making competition motivated the students to perform and outshine in their creative skills and most important, work as a team to bring laurel to their house.

Annual Sports Day

“Your dreams are what define your individuality. They have the power to give you wings and make you fly high.”
By P. V. Sindhu

The annual sports day event, held on 29th of December at Jay Jyoti School, was a thrilling display of athleticism and sportsmanship. The morning was filled with great zeal, excitement and frolicsome atmosphere. A large number of students, all teaching and non-teaching staff took part in the celebration whole-heartedly to enjoy it.

The celebration was inaugurated by Honourable SMC President Professor D. K. Rai. The day started off with the lovely rendition by the choir to welcome the chief guest. After that the students of all four houses marched around the playground with the rhythm and beating of the drum. Another highlight of the day was the lighting of the Presidency Torch which was carried by Head Boy Paramjeet Singh along with the Captain of Tagore House Jaswant Singh, Sports Captain Aditya Meena, Sports captain Rozan Naaz. After that the Oath was taken by Sports Captain Aditya Meena and then the celebration was started fully. There were many events in the celebration.

To showcase the skills of the students different field dances were performed by tiny tots of classes Nursery to class-II (Zumba Dance), III-V (Pom Pom Dance) and classes VI-VIII (Lezim dance). The competitors tried their best to excel in the events. Next was the track event that was the relay race of 4 × 100 Metres of boys and girls (Classes IX-XII). Now we come to a thrilling point of program – the moment we all were eagerly waiting for that was the Award Ceremony. The event medals, trophies, and certificates were awarded to the achievers of the various events by our Chief Guest Honourable SMC President Professor D. K. Rai.

Speech was given by our Chief Guest Honourable SMC President Professor D. K. Rai.

Vote of Thanks was given by our Sports Captain Ms. Rozan Naaz.

At the end of the day, students departed with a clear smile on their faces as the Tagore House emerged as House Champions and Mother Teresa House secured first position in Co-curricular activities.

The event came to end at around 12:30 p.m.

The Principal of this esteemed institution, Mr. R.B.S. Thapa thanked all the teachers for their cooperation and support and advised children to keep up their sportsman spirit.

Republic Day Celebration

The 75th Republic Day was celebrated in the school on 26th January 2024. Students and staff filled with a feeling of patriotism and dedication gathered in the ground. The celebration started with the hoisting of the National flag by our Manager Sir Mr. Sanjay Mishra. The manager sir delivered a powerful speech on the significance of Republic Day and also launched the school's annual magazine. The students put up a spectacular show with patriotic songs.

On the occasion of Republic Day, various competitions were organised from classes Nursery to XII. They were: Intra Class Colouring Competition (Nursery–V), Intra Class Poster Making Competition (VI–VIII), Intra Class Slogan Writing Competition (IX–XII). While students from classes VI–XII showcased their artistic prowess, students from Nursery–V also unleashed their inner artist as they joyously coloured the pictures.

The programme ended with the message to create a great nation through collective efforts from all individual. Sweets were distributed among all the students.

Basant Panchami Celebration

“Knowledge is power. Information is liberating. Education is the premise of progress, in every family.”

Saraswati Puja was organized in our school, on the occasion of Basant Panchami on 14th February 2024. The assembly ground was decorated with flowers and balloons. It is supposed that the Devi Saraswati was born on this day which was further celebrated as Basant Panchami. Dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, Basant Panchami marks the arrival of the Spring season in India. Saraswati is the Goddess of knowledge, music, learning and arts. Basant Saraswati is celebrated with joy and enthusiasm in various parts of India. The Goddess symbolizes creative energy and power in all their forms. It is believed that without her blessings, the world would be shrouded in ignorance, as she represents enlightenment.

On this occasion, the Principal along with staff members and all the students assembled in Assembly hall, offered flowers to the idol of Goddess Saraswati to seek blessings from the divine Goddess Saraswati, Havan, a fire ritual was performed in the school in which the Principal along with the staff members and students took part. Thereafter the students sang various bhajans. In his talk, Principal told the students about the importance of Basant Panchami. The program ended with Aarti and Prashad distribution.

Graduation Ceremony

“The Graduation Ceremony of Kindergarteners is a time to celebrate new beginning and say goodbye to everything that has given you a reason to smile. It is the warm memories of the past and big dreams for the future.”

Jay Jyoti School celebrated Graduation Ceremony of Kindergarten on Friday 22nd March 2024. The programme commenced with the ceremonial lamp lighting by the Respected Principal, Mr. R.B.S. Thapa. First, he congratulated the little graduates and their parents on this momentous occasion and appreciated their involvement in their child's learning. He complimented the graduates on their achievements, also congratulated the teachers for their dedication and hard work in shaping the students through education and other co-curricular activities. Our tiny tots looked attractive in their graduation robes and caps.

It was indeed a joyous and memorable day for the little ones as they received their graduation Certificates and took along the message of keeping their spirits high.

Congratulations to our little graduates. Go ahead and win over the world !
